

Fig 1.1 Shows examples found online of three different monochromatic color schemes that could be used. This is only meant to show different colors could be used and how hue may denote variance in influenza rates.